

Can you write an invitation to your friends for something you are celebrating? Don't forget to decorate it!

Now look at your friend's invitation and write a card to accept or decline the invitation politely.

