

Think of something you feel you need to apologize or something you need to say thank you for to one of your friends in class. Write him/her a note and give it to him/her or put it on the class notice board..

